Hall this morning in full force and listened to reports from committees picksis.

The report was made that about twenty small brewers were about to yield and abandon the pool. This caused great rejoicing. Many saloon-keepers were said to have changed from pool to non-pool brewers, and that others are anxious so to do, but have not been able to secure supplies.

The action of the saloon-keepers and the refusal of the pool to make a settlement with the men was commented on adversely to the employers, and the belief expressed that the saloon-keepers will take such action to-night at their meeting, at 205 East Ninth street, as will tend greatly to bring the pool to a full sense of the situation.

THE WORST IN SEVENTEEN YEARS.

Most Unruly April and Plenty of Colde to Catch if You Want Them.

Prophet Dunn, of the Weather Bureau, was hinking over his sins in his retreat on top of he Equitable Building this morning when B EVENING WORLD reporter called on him. He had some very interesting remarks to make about the unreasonable weather of this month

"This April is a splendid month to catch cold in." be remarked.

The reporter assured him that he did not ant to catch cold.

The reporter assured him that he did not want to catch cold.

Well, it's a fact nevertheless. Wyy, it has been is degrees colder this month than the mean temperature for April during the past seventeen years. Furthermore, it has been 2.68 degrees colder since January than the mean temperature for the first four months of each year during the past seventeen years. Do you know that we have had 4.34 inches more rain since January than for a corresponding length of time during the past seventeen years? This April has been a very wet mouth and a very changeable one, take it all in all.

Prophet Dunnthen produced several books and said that there have been very few clear days this month. It rained on the 1st, 2d, 5th, 6th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 14th, 16th, 18th, 96th, 23d. On the 21st it actually smowed. He promised better things for the future, though. To-day will be fair and warm in New York. He will use his influence to have the winds blow from the west and later on from the north.

At 5. M. the temperature was: In New York, 37 degrees: Boston, 36 degrees; Jacksonville, 64 degrees: Washington, 36 degrees; Philadelphia, 36 degrees; Chicago, 42 degrees; New Orleans, 62 degrees; San Francisco, 50 degrees. Kate Mahoney, his cousin, whose ankle was broken in drepping from the front window, and James Walker, another tenant of the third floor, who was badly burned about the face and arms, are still at the hospital. Their condition is not serious.

Assistant Foreman Gormley, of Truck 7, says that when he reached the house the fire was bursting from the windows as if there had been an explosion, and big bunches of burn ag excelsior were shot out with the flames. There seemed to be a lot of burning bedding in all the rooms.

Mrs. Alice Green, who has rented the second floor for two years past for the overflow for her bearding-house at 159, opposite, was very indignant at the idea that she knew anything of the origin of the fire.

The enemies of the workingmen and work ingwomen have succeeded in passing through the Assembly the Senate bill restricting Saturday half holidays to the months of June, July, August and September. Notwithstanding that capitalists, monopolists, manufacturers, bankers and the lobby used their powerful influence with the members of the lower house, they only succeeded in having the compromise bill of the upper house concurred in by one more vote than was, absolutely necessary. The compromise amendment came up in the Assembly yesterday afternoon, and Robert Ray Hamilton, the blue-blooded representative of aristocratic Eleventh Assembly the District, championed it. Sixty-five District, championed it. Sixty-five votes were required to pass the iniquitous measure, and Mr. Hamilton had to rush around to drum up the Assemblymen who have no sympathy with the wage-earners of this State He finally succeeded in securing sixty-six votes in favor of the Pour-Months Saturday Half-Holiday measure, and the tally-sheet will show that these sixty-six men are either rich men, sons of rich men, or representatives of moneyed institutions corresponding to the state of the

GOV, HILL ON THE PRESENT LAW. Gov. Hill, in his message to the Legislature

The propriety of lessening the hours of the daily abor of workingmen, so far as the same can be properly controlled and regulated by law, is commended to your careful consideration.

In the same message he remarked; Poverty is one great source of discontent. Over vork, poorly recompensed, is another. It is, therefore, suggested that the demand of wageworkers for shorter hours presents a subject entitled to respectful consideration. It to evident that labor does not receive its fair proportion of the share.

In recommending the Saturday half holiday to the Legislature of 1887 : Whether or not any reduction of the hours of daily labor is practicable or enforceable by statute, there can be no question as to the power of the Legislature to declare certain days to be legal holidays, and it may be advisable to establish by law additional holidays for the benefit of all, and especially for those who daily perform arduous and exacting labor, and in that view to designate energy Saturday, or the half of every Saturday, tegal and

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.] WASHINGTON, April 25,- It is reported here on what is said to be high authority that the President's choice for Chief Justice will be Associate Justice Stephen J. Field, of California, the ranking Democratic Justice on the Supreme Bench, and a brother of David Dudley Field and Cyrus W. Field. Minister Phelps will be appointed to Field's place as Associate Justice, and ex-Mayor Cooper, of this city, son of Peter Cooper, and brotherin-law and partner of Mayor Hewitt, will be appointed Minister to England, a place which he sought at the beginning of the Cleveland administration, but which he didn't get, much to the disappointment of his political faction in this city.

KILLED HIS WIFE AND HIMSELF. an Early Morning Tragedy at Newark-William Bullock's Jenfousy.

ROCHESTER, April 23.—William Bullock, of Newark, Wayne County, a car inspector in the West Shore yards, shot his wife at daybre k this morning, and then sent a bullet bre k this morning, and then sent a bullet through his own brain. The woman died instantly. The man lingered until 10 o'clock. The bedies were discovered by the son on his appearance at the house this morning. Mr. Bullock was thirty-eight years old and his wife thirty-three. They had three children, only one of which lived with them. Bullock and his wife bore good reputations in the village, and it is not known exactly why the shooting took place. The cause is supposed to have been jealousy.

LOUISVILLE JOCKEY CLUB. A Rumor that the Bookmakers Will Run in Oppraition. [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD,] LOUISVILLE, April 25, -It is rumored here that the conflict between the Western Beckmakers' Association and Lewis Clark, representing the Louisville Jackey Club, is 1 kely to result in an opposition race meeting at the Fair Grounds during the regular spring meeting of the Louisville Jockey Cub, beginning May 14. Few believe the rumor, as the story has been told before.

In connection with the rumor Col. Clark said this morning: 'I do not propose to be intuminated by any set or combination of bookmakers, and care but if they shart a dozen race meetings in opposition to the Louisville Jockey Club's meeting. They know my terbis, and if they wantio accept them, well and good. We got on very well for a number of years without bookmakers, and I guess we can do so again. Escaping from Windows of a Burning House.

One Leaps Into a Net: Another Slides Down a Wire.

Exciting Scenes in West Twenty-eighth Street Early This Morning-Most of the Inmates of the House Suffering from Burns or Bruises-Loss of Life Prevented by Good Work by Firemen-The Kooper of the House Was to Be Tried To-Day.

They have not been early risers at Imra Endurf's boarding - house, No. 55 West Twenty-eighth street. Fire, which is supposed to have started in the basement, skirmished around the inside of the house, spoiling the nandsome furniture and doing $2,000 damage several hours before the usual breakfast time of the inmates this morning.

People outside the house knew of the fire long before those inside. An alarm was sent out at 5.30 o'clock, and efforts were made to awaken the endangered sleepers. There was a great shouting and a ringing of the front door bell, and these efforts, combined with the smoke, finally aroused Frances Russell, aged twenty-one, whose room was on the third floor, rear. She arose, opened her door, and was confronted by flame and

Her escape by way of the hallway and stairs was cut off, and she retreated, shut her door and began to scream. Then she slid into a black wrapper, went to the window and prepared to jump, but was cautioned against the leap by a man on a neighboring roof. A water pipe from the roof ran down the wall just outside the window, and beside it were several telegraph wires. Miss Russell became desperate as the flames burst in at her door, and seizing one of the wires, she swung herself out the window and slid down to the floor below, where she was pulled into a window of the next house. Fannie Fippeny, aged forty-five, was on the third floor and was pulled out of her window and into a window of the house No. 55 by a fireman. She was quite seriously burned and was taken to Bellevue Hospital. Minnie Lewis, aged nineteen, was rescued from another third-story window by being pulled into the house on the east side, No. 51.

Annie Fann, the colored cook, aged forty-five, came down a ladder from the secondstory window. She was burned quite se-verely and was taken to the New York Hos-pital. Hattie String, aged thirty-seven, a colored chambermaid, jumped from a second-story window into the net spread by the firemen in front of the house. She was burned and she also received hurts, not serious, by falling from the net. She was taken to the New York Hospital. York Hospital.

The fire crept into every room in the house and did damage everywhere. How it started nobody could tell, as every fire in the house was said to have been put out last night. It was easily extinguished by the firemen, but, together with the water thrown upon it, it worked great mischief with the carpets, the furniture, the pictures, the bric-a-brac and the pieces of statuary which stood in niches in the stairways.

The scene before all the inmates of the house had got out, this morning, was very exciting as the scantily clothed women appeared against backgrounds of smoke and flame at the windows. The people in the adjoining houses were also at the windows and in doubt as to whether the fire would stop with the one house in which it started.

Mary McIver is a colored servant in No. 55, and her rear window is near that of Frances Russell, the girl who slid down the telegraph wires. Mary is small, but plucky, and when she saw the Russell girl's dilemma she leaned far out of her window and stretched out her hand in the endeavor to reach the girl and pull her into the house.

The boarding-house has not borne a good reputation. It was raided by policemen in the stairways.

The boarding-house has not borne a good reputation. It was raided by policemen from the Thirtieth street station on April 2, and Mine. Endurf's case was on the General Sessions calendar for to-day. The raid, it is said, was instigated by a discharged servant. It was thought possible that a clue to the origin of the fire might be found in this direction, but nothing could be learned to expect such a theory.
